

CSG-project

Bioinformation and identity: a biographical analysis of the impact of bioinformatics on the human sciences and humanities

Academic Lectures

2009

- Baren, J. Guest lecture “Accounting for expertise: Wynne and the autonomy of the lay public”, part of the course Knowledge Society (Science Communication course), Radboud University, Nijmegen, 2 April
- Baren, J. Presentation and discussion with philosopher Peter Sloterdijk at the University for Humanistics. Utrecht, 23 April
- Baren, J. Gastcollege “Maatschappelijke kanten van Bioinformatica”, part of the Faculty of Science Bachelor course “Introductie toegepaste bioinformatica”, with Hub Zwart, Radboud Universiteit, 25 June
- Baren, J. Presentation “Bioinformatics and changing human bodies”, EGN Conference, 7 October
- Baren, J. Presentation “Bioinformatics and changing human bodies”, CSG Programme II meeting, 11 December

Societal Publications

2009

- Baren, J. and Consoli, L. “The Pirate Bay rekt grens legaliteit op”, Trouw, 9 July